Foreword

It is true that we are now leaving our dear school, but although some of us are never to return we shall ever cherish and keep the memories of our school days. In presenting this annual we hope that it will bring back to you a few fond memories and that you shall remember all the fun we have shared together.

ALMA MATER

Your praises high we love to sing,
 Oh Seven Springs
 The thought of you to our warm hearts
 What fondness brings!
 To far we wander, tho many lands
 We roam,
 We'll turn to you as loving children
 Turn toward home.
 We love to honor your dear name,
 Oh Seven Springs High
 Your delight to spread your
 To sea and sky,
 To the hills

O Alma Mater, noble and true,
 Through all the years,
 Be radiant from your torch of truth
 And free from cares.
 May God protect you and all your
 Labors bless
 And spare you long for noble works
 Of usefulness!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of 1952, being in full possession of alert minds and memories, do declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

To the members of our faculty, we leave a large amount of sympathy for their depressing attempts to pound knowledge into our craniums.

To our beloved teacher, Mrs. Gertrude Scott, we leave our apologies for all the worries we have caused her, also we leave our love and sincere thanks for being so patient and understanding with us.

The following valuable personal bequest, freely and fully given, should be treasured as a continual reminder of the abundant generosity of the Class and the individuals thereof. We trust these responsibilities will be assumed promptly and bring important results.

I, Louise Price, will my misbehavior in class to Clara Creel so she won't have to be so quiet when Mr. Creel's looking.

I, Dora Williams, leave my ability to slip off from school without getting caught to James Davis.

I, Johnny Daly, bequeath my ability to chew tobacco in school to Avery Davis.

I, Bobbie Kornegay, leave my sense of humor to Hazel Wade.

I, Tempie Faye Creech, leave my record for running up and down the hall to Mildred Creech.

I, Ben Jones, will my ability to get along with teachers to Jake Maxwell.

I, Mamie Jean Herring, bequeath my engagement ring to Jean Vinson in hopes it will help her keep her boy friends.

I, Esther Whitfield, will the No. 11 basketball uniform to Emma Sanderson.

I, Jean Price, leave my boyish bob hair-do to Hilda Ann Piner.

I, Donald Hinson, bequeath my ability to carve desk in the 12th grade room to Arthur Herring and Franklin Smith.

I, "Lefty" David Williams, will my pitching ability to Kenneth Edwards, so next year he'll have a permanent position on the baseball team.

I, Richard Ivey, leave my operatic voice to Dennis Lee Sutton.

I, Theodore Tilghman, bequeath my ability to behave in class to Burtrell Price.

I, Christine Smith, will my ability to attend class regularly to Vernon Price.

I, Rex Price, leave my knowledge to type stencils and operate the rex-o-graph and meme-o-graph machine to Nelson Price.

I, Lebron Herring, leave my ability to eat ice cream and chew tobacco at the same time to Burtrell Price.

I, Carolyn Herring, leave all my boy friends to Christine Kilpatrick, since she needs them worse than I do.

I, Virginia Grant, bequeath my basketball ability and 37 point average to Elaine Head.

Signed-Virginia Grant

PROPHECY

As I spin the Wheel of Fortune, these items come into view. I see Tempie Faye Creech. She's living in Duplin and taking care of her five children while her husband supervises the tending of his 2,000 acre farm.

Across the river at the Cliffs of the Neuse State Park I see Johnny Daly. He is a Park Ranger and has turned out to be quite a nature boy.

Down the road a little way I see Virginia Grant who is now married and has four prospective basketball players. It seems her children have a natural instinct for sports, because they often go hunting with their parents.

Over in Price Town Mamie Jean Herring and Rex Price are married and extremely happy except for one thing; they can't agree on how to raise their children.

Theodore Tilghman now has a radio program in Seven Springs. He spends most of his time telling falsehoods. He must be pretty good for he receives a salary of $3,000 per week.

As the wheel turns I see Dora Williams up at the Nation's Capital. She's helping the President with his bookkeeping. She receives $77,000 per year.

Down Sevens Springs way I see Ben Jones. He stays rather close to the village because he doesn't want his friends to get lonesome for him. His hobby is keeping the village folks awake on Saturday night.

Up in New York I see Jean Price and Christine Smith. They teach school in New York State College. They are the best paid teachers in the United States.

Near Mt. Olive I see Donald Hinson driving his 1962 Cadillac Convertible. That's the best way Donald knows how to get plenty of girl friends.

Esther Whitfield has a two-block beauty salon in Hollywood. She is now supervisor for the hair-dos of the movie stars.

Near Seven Springs I see Lebron Herring and his wife living on a huge farm. Their favorite past-time is raising fice dogs.

Bobbie Kornegay is nursing in the Seven Spring's 50-acre hospital. She is known as the kindest and bravest nurse in the state.

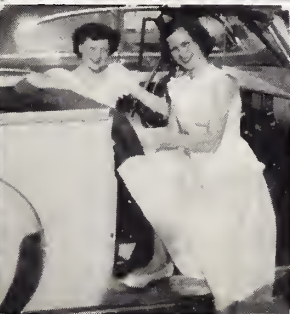

The next item I find on the Wheel of Fortune is David Williams pitching baseball for the St. Louis Cardinals. He receives $125,000 a year. He seems to be having a hard time teaching Junior to pitch, because Junior isn't the athletic type.

Richard Ivey is starring in a MGM picture called the "The Kissing Link". Doris Day is co-starring in the same picture.

Carolyn Herring is living on a farm near Seven Springs. She seems to be having a hard time trying to teach Junior to talk properly.

As the Wheel begins to slow down I see Louise Price living in Duplin. Her husband runs an oil company while Louise stays at home and keeps house. The Wheel is still slowing down and finally stops and every thing turns blank.
